Since 1910 the Yellow and White has experienced many years of successful leadership in Central. Debating, dramatic study and literary work are the subjects around which our programs are built. The purpose of our meetings is to enlarge the literary culture of Owl members, and in the true fellowship enjoyed to encourage the growth of character.

With the assistance of our critic, Miss Garnett who is held in high esteem by all Owls, the year 1922 and 1923 has been a splendid one for Owls. The "pep," originality and congenial co-operation of our members was shown by the fact that we started the year by winning the "Booster" ticket selling campaign. Soon after we promoted the "girls' mixer," the first ever given in our school, entertained the inter society debating teams, and shared in the girls' Christmas program. We have arranged several public programs, one for the Alumni Reunion, a valentine program February 14, and an assembly program later.

The Owl Society is always represented in every scholastic contest by the talent portrayed through our active members. Two Senior Owls take honors as members of Central's first inter-scholastic debating team. This example was followed by our Junior representation on the annual Essay Contest. Although our aims are of literary value, Owls have had the privilege of boosting for Central in other ways, by having members on the Wildcat staff, Booster council and class officers. Owls have always been enthusiastic Centralites. Not for Owls alone but for Central High and Owls, is the toast of its members.
